

October 2013 - Several of our Santa Clara Valley Chapter members attended the United Airlines Family Fun Day yesterday at their maintenance base at San Francisco airport and participated in their Plane Pull event.

We had to "move" this "Airbus A320" plane by pulling on the heavy rope attached to the forward running gear. We moved the plane the required 20 feet or so.

Chuck Christensen, 2013 MAFCA Technical Director